

Suffolk Horse Gathering 2024
NASHA Annual Meeting
Caron, Saskatchewan
September 20-22, 2024

Thursday, Sep. 19

Arrive a day early and enjoy touring some of the local attractions, list to follow.

Thursday evening in town—first showing of “Somehow Hopeful: The Story of a Woodsman”, featuring the Suffolk horse.

Friday, Sep. 20

8:00am Registration, horse field events, seminars, lunch and supper at Ponside Paddocks.

Friday evening in town—second showing of “Somehow Hopeful: The Story of a Woodsman”.

Saturday, Sep. 21

9:00am Horse field events, seminars, lunch at Ponside Paddocks.

5:30pm Banquet and Annual meeting in town at the Community Hall.

Sunday, Sep. 22

9:30am Meeting of the New Board.

11:00am Church in the barn followed by light lunch.

Afternoon tours of local attractions, list to follow.

Travel:

Flights connecting into YQR Regina International Airport.

Ponside Paddocks: the farm of Ed & Luise Livingston located one hour west of Regina on TransCanada Hwy 1, and three miles south of Caron, SK on Rd 643.

Registration:

Please fill out the registration form and remit with payment.

Registered Suffolk horses are welcome to participate in the field days, please indicate on the form that you wish to bring horses.

Accommodations:

Pilgrim Inn

www.pilgriminn.ca

Hwy 1 West, 301 College Drive, Box 1047
Caronport, SK S0H 0S0

frontdesk@pilgriminn.ca

1-877-355-5002

Group rate of $104 CAD per night with
booking code SUFF24

Camping at the farm will be available only for those that are bringing horses.